

FREJDA BASZKIEWICZ BORN 1868 NOWOGROD POLAND

This event took place in the city of Nowogrod-- a Jewish gentleman named Szolim Moszk Baszkiewicz a turner by trade-forty five years of age appeared in person in the presence of Jewish witnesses: Lejb Kon, sexton, seventy-three years of age and Kusel Chmielewski, a laborer of seventy four years of age also residing in Nowogrod and presented to us a female newborn,declaring that she was born in Nowogrod on the third/the fifteenth of April eighteen sixty-eight at six oclock in the morning to his legally bound wife Golda Krymkiewicz (maiden name),forty-one years of age. The newborn child was named Frejda and due to the absence of her father, was not reported immediately.

The completed act of a declaration of civil existence took place in Nowogrod on the sixteenth of April, the eighth of May , eighteen eighty one at eleven oclock in the morning. Only the father signed the document since the witnesses declared themselves illiterate.