

Berg/Friedman Family

By Miriam S. Colistra

My grandmother, Ida Berg Friedman, her sister, Lena Berg, and her brother, Joseph Berg are buried in the Sveksna Landsmanschaften section of Acacia Cemetery in Brooklyn, New York. I would like to believe that they came from Sveksna, but I was told that I would need more information than that. According to the 1900 census my grandfather, named Chaim (Hyman) Asher Friedman, came to America with my grandmother in 1888 or 1889. I can find no information about them before they emigrated. I found my grandmother's parents, named Morris and Sarah Berg, on her death certificate. I also know that Sarah immigrated to America. There are so many Bergs and Friedmans listed on ship and naturalization records, I cannot tell which is mine. I am so sorry I cannot give you any more information.
